

Metropolitan Cases

Oswalt v. Metropolitan (San Diego County Superior Court)

Plaintiff Mark Oswalt represented by the law firm Martinez & Schill LLP filed a personal injury lawsuit against Metropolitan for alleged head and neck injuries sustained when a tree fell on his truck when he was driving on the private roadway near Rainbow Heights Road in Fallbrook, California in San Diego County. Metropolitan owns an easement on this roadway and the tree was within the boundaries of the easement. Metropolitan was served with the lawsuit on April 20, 2023. Metropolitan retained outside counsel to assist with the litigation. Metropolitan answered the complaint and filed cross-complaints against potentially responsible third parties, including nearby landowners and easement holders. Metropolitan conducted discovery on all parties, including taking depositions. On July 8, 2025 Metropolitan attended mediation but did not settle the case at that time. On September 5, 2025 Plaintiff served a California Code of Civil Procedure Section 998 offer on Metropolitan and Metropolitan presented the offer to the Board in October. Subsequently, Metropolitan negotiated a settlement and release for $175,000. All parties have agreed to settle, and Metropolitan will file a request for dismissal when all settlements have been paid.
